

Volunteer Presenters Wanted for Queering the Air on 3CR!

Amplify Queer Voices. Make Airwaves Matter.

Do you have something to say about queer culture, politics, or community? Want to get behind the mic and shape the conversations that matter? Queering the Air is looking for passionate, critically engaged Volunteer Presenters to join our diverse team!

As a Presenter, you'll be part of a vibrant collective producing and presenting a dynamic, hour-long radio program every Sunday from 3–4 PM on a rotating roster. Together, we bring queer perspectives to the forefront through interviews, music, local news, and lively discussion.

About Queering the Air

Queering the Air is bold, intersectional, and unapologetically queer. We centre voices from across the LGBTQIA+ spectrum—especially those marginalised by mainstream media—and explore issues through a lens of resistance, creativity, and solidarity.

What You'll Do

- Co-create and co-present Queering the Air as part of a collaborative team – we're all in this together
- Share our shows via social media to grow our community connections
- Support community media by participating in 3CR's annual Radiothon and subscriber drives

About 3CR Community Radio

3CR is a fiercely independent, community-powered radio station that's been broadcasting radical voices since 1976. With over 400 volunteers and 120+ shows weekly—broadcast in 13 languages, including 10 hours of Indigenous programming—3CR is committed to social justice, grassroots activism, and amplifying voices often discriminated against and shut out of commercial media.

Tune in via 855AM, 3CR Digital, live stream, audio on demand, or podcast.

No Experience? No Problem.

We provide radio training! All you need is a commitment to queer liberation and a willingness to learn. Presenters must be 3CR subscribers and registered volunteers.
