

Production Support - Feminist Program

Volunteer Position Description

About the Program

This is a 30-minute program that explores feminist and gender issues through interviews, commentary, and music. It airs on 3CR 855AM, 3CR Digital, and is available on-demand at 3cr.org.au.

Skills Required

- Completed or currently enrolled in 3CR Radio Training
- Completed a Studio 1 induction (refresher training available)
- Strong communication skills and ability to work collaboratively

Purpose

As a production support volunteer, you will be part of a weekly 3CR program team, assisting with arranging interviews, preparing questions for guests, and managing live or pre-recorded segments. Each program typically features a guest, plays one to two songs, and includes community service announcements.

Key Tasks

- Provide production support for the program
- Operate the panel, including managing phone interviews
- Communicate proactively with the program coordinator to plan and organise content

Volunteer Requirements Must complete a Volunteer Registration Form and be a current subscriber to the station

Location 3CR Studio 1 / 3CR, 21 Smith Street, Fitzroy

Time Commitment Approximately 1–2 hours per week

Who Can Apply? We encourage applications from women and gender-diverse volunteers.

Volunteer Benefits

- Hands-on experience operating the panel for a live radio program
- Opportunity to contribute to a feminist and gender-diverse media space
- Connect with like-minded individuals
- Support the diversification of media
- Gain experience working with an alternative media organisation
